

QUIET MIND GOLF

How to sharpen your short game without changing your technique.

Are you tired of gagging on short putts, feeling unable to judge distance, and being wobbly with a wedge? If so, we have a program that will transform your game.

Join us for a premium half-day Quiet Mind Golf coaching experience at:

RattleSnake Point Golf Club, Milton, Ontario

June 23 - 8:30 am to 1 p.m

with,

Nathan Robinson,
Director of Golf, PGA of Canada

Tim O'Connor
Golf and Performance Coach

Learn how to manage your mind to enjoy peak performance and more freedom in golf—and your life—without the grind of constantly fixing your technique (which never works anyway).

With an investment of $500, you will learn and receive:

- Reduce tension and thinking so you putt more freely and effectively
- Stroke putts accurately and the right distance
- Develop a confident, reliable wedge game
- Enter states of flow that can transform your entire game
- Three hours of short-game coaching, including experiential processes
- Coaching on how elite players focus and execute under pressure

You also receive:

- A welcome gift
- Grab-and-go breakfast
- Sumptuous RattleSnake Point GC lunch that includes a facilitated discussion to ingrain the learning
